

Reject petition 04-160! This is simply another power play by big business to limit our ability to get helpful knowledge. When I am traveling I depend on the consistent signal of XM radio. It is a far more professional operation than so-called local stations, which have no traffic, or weather for most areas. They are not a service to anyone, we need XM radio reports!!!

David G. Small